No. 2115 Athens, March 29, 1932.

Subject: Visit of Ethiopian Envoy.

The Honorable

The Secretary of State,

Washington, D. C.

Sir:

The Ethiopian Minister at London and Paris, Mr. Badjironde Zelleké Aguedeou, accompanied by Mr. Tasfaé Tangagné, Chargé d'Affaires of that country at Paris, is now visiting Athens as Special Envoy of the Emperor of Ethiopia, to present to the Greek Government the thanks of the Emperor for having been represented at the coronation ceremonies by Mr. Politis, Greek Minister to France. The presence of the Ethiopian envoy at Athens has been favorably noted. It has been recalled that the Emperor Haile Selassie I. visited Athens nine years ago and since that time the relations between the two countries have shown a tendency to grow. Particularly, the press notes a point of the fact that a considerable number of Greeks reside in Ethiopia, and no complaint reaches Athens as to their contentment with the Government or people. On the contrary, the impression prevails that Greeks are welcome in that country.

The Ethiopian Minister sent his cards to me, which courtesy was appreciated and returned.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed)

Leland B. Morris,
Chargé d'Affaires ad interim.
